B&H Publishing Group re-releases Demon and Havah by Tosca Lee New Added Content Enhances Reader Experience

NASHVILLE, Tenn, March 2, 2010 – When asked, “How do you improve upon novels that garnered such critical and public acclaim when first released?” B&H Publishing Group Fiction Editor Karen Ball responds, “add more of the same.”

The re-release of Tosca Lee’s Demon (ISBN: 978-1-43366-8807; June 1, 2010; $14.99) and Havah (ISBN: 978-1-4336-6879-1, August 1, 2010; $14.99) will include more of what readers want, dropped scenes, reader comments, author research notes and discussion questions designed to enhance the reader’s experience with these novels.

The B&H fiction website PureEnjoyment.com and Tosca’s website ToscaLee.com feature additional digital content including sample chapters, compelling book video trailers, author interviews about the writing of the novels and a teaser for Tosca’s upcoming book from B&H, Iscariot.

“So few books rattle me to the core yet lift my hopes to the heavens in the same breath. Tosca Lee’s Demon, A Memoir is a rare find that must be read.” --Ted Dekker, New York Times Bestselling author of The Bride Collector and the Circle Trilogy

“A passionate and riveting story of the Bible’s first woman. Lee’s superior storytelling will have readers weeping for all that Havah forfeited by a single damning choice.” --Publishers Weekly Starred Review
